Marcia Hull Announces Candidacy for Mayor of Mount Olive, Mississippi

Mount Olive, MS – 2nd February 2025 – Community advocate and lifelong resident Marcia Hull has officially announced her candidacy for mayor of Mount Olive, Mississippi. With a steadfast commitment to progress, transparency, and community well-being, Hull is prepared to bring fresh leadership and a vision for a stronger, more united Mount Olive.

Marcia Hull has long been an advocate for local businesses, education, and infrastructure improvements, recognizing that a thriving town depends on economic opportunity and public services that work for everyone. Her campaign is built on three key pillars:

- Economic Growth & Local Business Support – Hull will work to attract new businesses, support local entrepreneurs, and promote job creation to revitalize Mount Olive's economy.
- Infrastructure & Community Development – From improving roads and utilities to investing in public spaces, she is committed to ensuring that Mount Olive remains a place where families and businesses can thrive.
- Transparency & Community Engagement – Hull believes in open communication with residents, prioritizing town hall meetings and accessible leadership to ensure that every voice is heard.

"Mount Olive is a town with incredible potential, and I am eager to work alongside our residents to create meaningful change," said Hull. "Together, we can build a community that fosters growth, safety, and opportunity for all."

Hull encourages all residents to engage with her campaign, share their concerns, and participate in shaping the future of Mount Olive.
